

Atrium Health Wake Forest Baptist Lexington Medical Center

Atrium Health Wake Forest Baptist Lexington Medical Center is a community hospital dedicated to delivering exceptional patient care and fostering a supportive environment for both patients and staff. With a commitment to clinical excellence, innovation, and community engagement, the organization continually strives to enhance health outcomes through compassionate service and advanced medical practices. As a cornerstone of the community, Lexington Medical Center values collaboration, professional growth, and the well-being of its team members, ensuring a positive and impactful health care experience for all.

 129 Direct Care Nurses

 14% of RNs are certified

 60% of nurses have advanced degrees

 61% of nurses have 5+ years of tenure

Recognition

- Joint Replacement Excellence Award 2024
- #5 Joint Replacement in NC 2024
- Get With The Guidelines Gold Plus: Stroke 2024
- 5 Star Colorectal Surgeries 2025
- Leap Frog Score of A Fall 2025

On the Journey to Pathway Designation

How We Support You

- Self Scheduling to support work-life balance.
- Mentor Program.
- Fully endorse and uphold the Professional Governance structure.

How We Help You Grow

- Tuition support for degree advancement and certification.
- Direct Care Nurses attend conferences.
- Support abstract and poster development to share ideas.

How We Recognize You

We foster a culture of day-to-day recognition where staff recognize each other via DAISY® nominations, Shout Out Boards, Kudos given during daily safety meetings, good catch awards, and more!