

Atrium Health Cleveland/Kings Mountain Nursing

Atrium Health Cleveland and Atrium Health Kings Mountain are community hospitals in Cleveland County, North Carolina, with a combined 308 beds. Atrium Health Cleveland is the first Level III Trauma Center in the state. As rural hospitals, we are committed to operational excellence and a strong nursing culture that supports shared decision making, quality and safety, well being, and professional growth.

First ANCC Pathway to Excellence® Designation

670 Nurses

217 Certified RNs

Certified RNs

54 New Grad Nurses

124 Clinical Ladder Nurses

2

Conference Posters

1

National Conference Podium Presentation

1

Nurse Association Webinar Presentation

1

North Carolina Great 100 Nurse

35

Nurses attended National Conferences

Nurse Recognition Programs

Nurses are recognized through:

- DAISY® Awards
- Preceptor Award
- Good Catch Award
- Certified Nurses Day
- Nurses Week Celebrations
- On the Spot Recognition

Professional Development

- Academic partnerships with Gardner-Webb and Cleveland Community College
- Bedside Nurse Clinical Instructor program
- Education and tuition assistance

Community Outreach

- Stop the Bleed classes for nurses and community members
- Patient Food Box programs in partnership with Community Food Bank
- Back to School Community Programs